News Culled for The Progress by our own Correspondents.

DAVIN.

A new postoffice has been established at Fairview with Mr. P. W. Elliott as postmaster. It has been named Davin, in honor of the representative of the electoral district. The name Fairview would not be accepted by the postoffice authorities, because that is the name of a post-office elsewhere, and duplication is avoided as much as possible.

McLEAN.

—There was a dance under the auspices of the debating club in the schoolhouse last Friday night. It was a very pleasant and successful party.

—Permit me through your columns to thank D. R. for the new hat he so liberally presented me with last week. No doubt he feels grateful for my mutual plaster. I would suggest further that he take a dose of worm medicine, get his teeth filed and apply a little more nitrate; he might be let loose on the grass. (We would suggest that our McLean correspondents direct their complimentary presentations into some other channel.—Ed.)

BALGONIE.

—The C. A. C. and C. Co. intend to put in 500 acres of flax this spring on each of their ten farms along the line. An expert was brought out some time ago and extensive preparations have already been made on the Balgonie and other farms.

REGINA.

—The Advisory Board of the North-West Territories met in session on Tuesday last.
The territorial dentists will hold their first convention on July 1st and 2nd in Regina.

—Montreal Star: Sergeant-Major F. W.
Spicer, of the North-West Mounted Police, in the city visiting the home. Everything is quiet in the Territories, and the police have succeeded in putting a stop to the raids made by Canadian Indians into Montana.

MOOSE JAW.

—Annals and Co., general merchants, have assigned to Mr. H. C. Butler.

—Mayor Simpson has returned from Ontario, and reports a large number of immigrants coming here this spring.

—Moose Jaw brass band gave their first concert Thursday night, which was well attended. Proceeds of the concert amounted to about $60.

LETHBRIDGE.

—Mr. Bruce is busy erecting a building for F. Ritchie, adjoining the harness store.
The building is to be 30 feet square, one half of each will be a law office and real estate office, and the other as a study.

—The price of town lots is going up rapidly. In the business part of the town property has advanced 100 per cent. since the news of the railway extension first arrived, and there is a good demand at good prices for lots suitable for erecting dwelling houses.

—The train came in late Wednesday night, bringing more than a week's mail for the town. It is to be hoped that we have seen the last of the snow blockades for this winter, as they come great irregularity in the train service, and consequently great inconvenience to all classes alike.

—His Honor Judge, Governor Ross arrived in town from Melton on Saturday, remaining in town over Tuesday, and left for Regina Friday night. On Saturday evening Mr. C. A. Magrath presented a supper given at the Lethbridge House in honor of the Lord Governor, to which between 40 and 50 sat down. To the course of a speech the Lord Governor expressed his confidence in the future prosperity of the town, and predicted that Lethbridge will become a large and thriving place in the near future.
An excellent supper was provided by Mr.
Henderson, and an excellent time was spent.

CARLYLE.

—It is understood there is to be a change made in the mail route between Mooseman and Carlyle. Instead of going by via Drumheller, instead of Carlyle as at present. This contemplated change causes much dissatisfaction among a large number of settlers.

—There is considerable excitement in the town on account of the fact that a half-breed shot a day ago. At night while the half-breed was running up on his black skin he had been shot, six men came, and after firing him down, they took him down to where the shot was fired, and the man then apparently and carried it off. They are all known, and what the outcome will be of the affair remains to be seen.

BLACKWOOD.

Blackwood, 7th March, 1890.

To the Editor of The Progress:

Sir,—I beg leave to ask the council of the municipality of Indian Head if the person they have appointed assessor has yet attained his majority? If not, can a minor who is not liable for debt legally perform work which is the basis of levying money on the ratepayers of a municipality? Or, if a person who does not possess the franchise can do a work which is the basis of conferring the franchise? Are we homesteaders again to have the humiliation and burden of supplying all the money required to run this municipality, as we have had to do before through the hands of our council with regard to assessment.

Yours, &c. HOMESTEADER.

FORT QU'APPELLE.

—W. F. Miller has been re-appointed teacher of the Fort Qu'Appelle school.

—Geo. Gillespie, lately of Colorado, has purchased John Dieman's farm for a good figure.

—S. E. Johnson, of Hayward, is importing a Shire horse from England, to arrive this month.

—Rev. R. C. Crockett leaves for England this week. It is expected he will return in a few months.

—A Keith, Indian agent, accompanied by Mrs. Keith, was in town on Saturday. Mrs.
Keith goes to Winnipeg.

—Indian Agent Lash and Inspector Hook-ley returned from visiting a number of Indians from near here, who are wintering their cattle near Touchwood Hills.

—Thomas Murray, of Parkland, returned from Ontario on Saturday. Mr. Murray went east on one of the passes granted by the C. P. R. to the use of immigration, and secured a number of settlers.

YORKTON.

—Our weekly mail is now run via Salt coats, and is a gain of several days in letters, both coming from and going east.

—Mr. Reaman, M. L. A., is now in Ontario in the interests of immigration.
We trust his efforts may be successful.

—The Orkney Literary and Debating Society is still in a flourishing condition.
The subject for last week's debate was Stock-raising versus Grain-growing, resulting in favour of Stock-raising. The subject for next week's debate is a comic one.

CALGARY.

—A cablegram was sent to the Duke of Connaught, Bombay, India, as follows:
"Calgary, in Northwest Territories, Canada, begs two days' offers hospitality, promises cattle round-up, and a Lady's dinner."

As no answer had been received to letters from the Duke in reference to his visit here, the council sent the above telegram.

—Before Judge Houshield judgment was given in the case of the Town vs. McLeod and McLeod vs. the Town, asking them to keep places of public resort, without paying a license, quashing the convictions upon the grounds that the fee imposed, $100 a year, was in excess of what the town was entitled to fix as a license fee, and was clearly a suit for revenue purposes.

—At a special meeting of the council the matter of two water power companies asking for charters from the Dominion Parliament came up, when it was decided that neither of the companies was to be the interest of the town, that the town take every measure to prevent the passing of the said bills. Telegrams were sent to Mr. Dewdney and several members of Parliament, asking them to oppose and throw out the bills to incorporate the Calgary Water Power Company and the Bow River Water Power Company, as they were opposed to the interests of Calgary and district.

—Mr. A. M. Steinhilber in a letter to the Maclean Gazette says of the Maclean colony in the Northwest Territories, asking them to keep places of public resort, without pay-
year, was in excess of what the town was
entitled to fix as a license fee, and was clearly a suit for revenue purposes.

—A silver gilt hand mirror of recent importation has an Italian mosaic scene in oil painting, showing through a thick beveled glass on the back.

Two squirrels, each engaged in gnawing at a nut, with a plain bar resting on their backs, make a silver knife rest that possesses many attractions.

Quite elaborate and handsome is a silver shaving mug with a plain bright band encircling the top, and with the bottom chased to represent a wicker basket.

A silver napkin ring of most attractive and attention from the most artistically induced represents a broken bottle drum resting on a wicker gun carriage wheel.

A neat and effective silver pen dish represents the curved feather of an ostrich. At one corner of the receptacle an old appearing owl with averted head is perched.

A helmet of fifteenth century armor, handsomely chased, makes a beautiful ornament in silver. The pointed visor at the front, on being opened, discloses a cut glass shield resting in a bed of pulled silk.

Prominent silverware dealers say that bright response work will soon predominate over the dull and oxidized articles of last season. Some very handsome styles in this class of ornamentation are being produced.

A useful and pretty article for the smoking table is a silver chalice tray bearing three spirit lamps of dull finished metal. Etched on the surface of the tray is a line of music with the words, "It was my last cigar."

No. 712.—A Question of Making Change.

A man purchased groceries to the amount of 34 cents. When he came to pay for the goods he found that he had only a one dollar bill, a three cent piece, and a two cent piece. The grocer, on his side, had only a fifty cent piece and a quarter. They appeared to a bystander for change, but he, although willing to oblige them, found that he had only a five cent piece, a two cent piece and a one cent piece. After some perplexity, however, change was made to the satisfaction of every one concerned. What was the simplest way of accomplishing this?

My Dear Charlotte—I have been reading, but how will you tell me about our pleasant trip. We went to Lake Geneva. There were Elizabeth, Helena, Willie, and myself. Elizabeth wore a green merino, Helena wore Canton flannel, I had to borrow a hood, and wore a black dress. We got an early start. We went over a very rocky road. Geneva had been on the lookout for us. As you must know, Geneva is very rich, and her floors were covered with Brussels carpet. She showed us the horned cattle, and also the lovely room pet cow. We stayed over Sunday, and then came home. My friend, I must close. I fear we shall get a hurricane. Farewell.

TRUST AN OLD FRIEND.

Old friends are best, and if ever sufferers had a friend, Harvard's Yellow Oil can justly claim the distinction. Pain never stays long where it is used, while for croup it is a specific. Parents should keep it in the home as a safeguard against accidents, frost bites, chilblains, sprains, bruises, burns, etc.
